

I respectfully urge the FCC to reject the NAB petition 04-160. I fully support XM radios ability to provide a variety of programming that I find relative to my life style. Traffic and weather reports are important services that I now receive.

In the late 1950's Newton Minnow stated that television was a "vast wasteland". Today's commercial radio fits this description.

Thank you,
Barry Tarleton